With almost 30 years in the game, WIND are Pennsylvanian husband-and-wife duo Nori and Barbie Kelley. Their latest, Shift (windworld.bandcamp.com) is an amiable selection of well-crafted, folky songs which are spiked with clever little rhythmic twists, unexpected chord changes, and Barbie's accomplished flute and whistle lines. Her vocals have a country twang, and Nori's seasoned, song-centric guitar elevates pieces like the languid Gospel Of Power, which features Kansas bassist Dave Hope. What a sincere, engaging record.
